CLOSE OF RED CROSS CAMPAIGN IN COUNTY.

At the close of the business day Saturday at the Red Cross rooms in the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank building, after contributions in various amounts had flowed in intermittently through the day, the committee in charge of the work of tabulating stated that the amount would reach $36,000.

On Saturday night a number of young women in Red Cross uniforms, after an eloquent four-minute address by Hon. E. M. Dickson, made a close canvass of the audience at the Grand Opera House, realizing a large sum from the contributions received there. There were no slackers there, and every one in the audience responded with a contribution, whether it was small or large.

Yesterday witnessed the close of the campaign in the city and county, which was waged unceasingly from its inception on Monday, May 20. County Chairman James Caldwell, to whose splendid administration of the office was due a large part of the success of the drive, left Saturday for a recreation stay at French Lick Springs, with a party of North Midletown friends, and the Paris office was left in charge of Deputy Sheriff J. O. Marshall and Mr. John N. Davis, who remained on duty all day yesterday receiving and acknowledging contributions. Last night, while the exact figures were not given out it was estimated that Bourbon county would be able to report a total subscription to the work of the "Great-est of All Mothers," the American Red Cross, the sum of approximately $37,000.

PARIS WANTS THE FACTS.

At the last meeting of the Paris City Council, held in the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Thursday night, the principal feature of the proceedings, after the disposition of routine business, was the consideration of the matter of investigating the electric lighting contract between the Paris Gas & Electric Co. and the city.

As a result of the investigation begun some months ago by Mr. W. H. Weiss, of Kansas City, Mo., who had been employed by the city as a consulting engineer, the Council passed a resolution making it obligatory upon the part of the Paris Gas & Electric Co. to furnish a complete inventory of its plant and all appurtenances; the service to consumers; to disclose by its books the price it pays for electric current and gas; its income account, operating revenue, cost of plant and total annual consumption of electric current and gas and the average revenue received by the company for the past six years.

The Council has, since the first of January, by resolution, declined to pay the full amount rendered against the city for lighting the streets, etc., on the ground that the prices charged for the services were excessive. The subject has been one of great controversy between the city and the lighting company, with the citizens standing anxiously in the background, silently awaiting developments.

DRUM CORPS EQUIPMENT ARRIVES.

Mr. Rudolph Davis, one of the prime movers in the organization of the Paris Drum and Bugle Corps, returned from Cincinnati, last Friday, where he purchased a complete set of drums, bugles, and other equipment for the use of the members. Part of the equipment has been on display in the windows of the Paris Gas & Electric Co.

At a meeting of the members held at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night organization was effected and the unskilled men drilled in the use of the instruments which they will handle. Another meeting was held at the Y. last night, which was in the nature of a full-dress rehearsal. Another meeting will be held at the same place to-night, when arrangements will be perfected for marching at the head of the Bourbon county draftees, who will leave to-morrow morning for Ft. Thomas. In addition to the regular equipment of drums, fifes and bugles, the corps will have a handsome flag and a silver baton, to carry.

BIG TIME FOR M. M. I. SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY.

Millersburg will be in gala attire next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, when some of the principal events in connection with the closing exercises of the Millersburg Military Institute will be brought to the forefront.

At the Methodist church, on Sunday morning Mr. H. E. Conner, harpist of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, will give a recital. Mr. Conner is also on the program to appear in selections on the harp at the M. M. I. Minstrel, which will be given Monday night. He is a remarkably gifted musician, and his appearance will be one of the rare events of the season.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered to the members of the 1918 graduating class on Sunday morning by Rev. Kerr Boyce Tupper, D. D., L. L. D., of Philadelphia.

Monday will be the really "big day" when the field day stunts which are an annual event in the history of the M. M. I., will take place. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Lexington Military Band. Preceding the first event a big parade has been arranged, to be participated in by the cadet corps and hundreds of Red Cross girls from all over the county, in their costume. A big service flag, containing 111 stars, representing, besides the men in private service, thirty-six commissioned officers, who were graduates of the M. M. I., will be raised and dedicated at 11:00 a. m., Monday.

At 12:30 lunch will be served in a big tent on the grounds, by the ladies of the Red Cross, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross Chapter. Rest rooms will be provided in the Savage cottage, near the campus for the convenience of ladies. A cordial invitation is extended by Major and Mrs. Best, to all the members of the Red Cross in Bourbon county to be present in their costumes and take part in the parade and proceedings. A like invitation is extended to all the people of the county to attend and help make the day one to be remembered.

On Monday night, a minstrel performance will be given, participated in by former cadets of the M. M. I. from all over the country. This will be one of the most enjoyable features of the program. Tuesday morning the graduating exercises will be held. On Tuesday night a cotillion and dance will be given, at which many new and entirely original figures, all of a military character, and appropriate to the times, will be given. All the figure, favors, decoration, dances and music will partake of a patriotic character. The music will be furnished by Webber's Band of Cincinnati. Everybody invited and welcomed.

The Business Men and Farmers will play a game of ball against the Doctors, Lawyers and Merchants at the M. M. I. grounds on Tuesday afternoon, June 4th, at 2:30 o'clock. The Mayor will issue a proclamation declaring a half-holiday on that date. The proceeds of the game will be donated to the Red Cross Society.

BOY SCOUTS TO HELP GOVERNMENT FIND BLACK WALNUT

President Wilson's appeal to the Boy Scouts of America to help win the war by locating supplies of black walnut trees has been followed by arrangements under which the War Department, the Forest Service, and the Boy Scout organization have joined efforts to find needed timber.

As President Wilson pointed out, the War Department program makes the securing of black lumber for use in manufacturing airplane propellers and gun stocks of the utmost importance. War Department and Forest Service officials are combing the country for black walnut timber, which can no longer be found in abundance anywhere, but has to be culled, often as single trees, from mixed forest growths. Much of the black walnut that is left in farmers' woodlots, and it is primarily to locate this that the Boy Scouts have been called into service. In the aggregate, there are said to be large supplies.

Many thousands of blanks and letters of instructions are being printed by the Government for distribution to scouts and scout masters throughout the region in which black walnut occurs in commercial quantities. Individual trees may be found as far east as Connecticut, northward in New York to and beyond the Canadian line, southward far into the prairie States, but the Ohio and Mississippi Valley States, the Middle Atlantic States, and the Southern Appalachian region are expected to furnish most of the supply. As reports are turned in by the scout masters, they will be tabulated by the Forest Department.

BOURBON MEN ATTEND RACING COMMISSION MEETING.

Mr. Arthur B. Hancock, Chairman of the State Racing Commission, and Mr. T. Hart Talbott, of the county, a member of the organization, attended a meeting of the Commission held in Louisville, at the Pendennis Club, Friday night.

One of the most important measures adopted at the meeting was the passing of a resolution apportioning among the Red Cross Chapters of the State the $300,000 guaranteed to the Red Cross movement by the racing men and owners of thoroughbreds in the State. The resolution, which was introduced by Judge Allie Young, provides that the secretary of the Committee shall communicate with the various Red Cross Chapters and pro rate the $300,000 among them in accordance with their quota. The addition of this sum will give the State a much higher standing in the Red Cross campaign.

The Commission also adopted resolutions of respect to the memory of the late John B. Castleman, of Louisville, who was always one of the most devoted adherents of the turf, and a great admirer of the racing game.

NOW DRILLING EIGHT WELLS.

The Columbia Oil & Gas Company is again fortunate. Through their manager, Mr. McClurkin, they were able to secure a driller in Winchester a few days ago, with his rig all ready to move on the train to Torrent, and thence to their property in Lee county. Mr. McClurkin immediately closed a contract with him for five wells, and work is to be rushed as rapidly as possible. This will make eight wells which this progressive little Company are now drilling.

ATTENTION, ODD FELLOWS!

Let's all join in and make Saturday, June 1, a gala day for Odd Fellowship in Bourbon county. Let every brother who desires to contribute strawberries, cakes, ice cream, or money, make the fact known now to the committee. Do not wait to be asked, but call up Mayor E. B. January and tell him about it.

Let us show the people of Bourbon county what the Odd Fellows of Kentucky are doing by having our wards give them a free open air concert on the court house steps on Saturday afternoon, June 1. Then give them a reception at the lodge room from 4:00 to 5:30 o'clock. Everyone will be invited to attend the reception, it matters not whether you are an Odd Fellow or not. You are cordially invited to come to the lodge room and meet the children, who will be glad to see you.

FIFTEEN BOURBON DRAFTEES LEAVE TO-MORROW.

Fifteen patriotic Bourbon young men, members of the Draft, will leave Paris to-morrow morning, for Camp Zachary Taylor, where they go to report for service in the army in response to the call from their country.

These young Bourbon patriots, like the scores that have preceded them to the front from Bourbon County during the past few months, are all loyal, red-blooded Americans. They are eager to get into the thick of the fray that they may assist their fellow soldiers in putting an end to the horrible atrocities being daily committed by the Germans.

The fifteen selects will report to the local Draft Board at the Court House this (Tuesday) afternoon, May 28, where they will be instructed and placed in charge of a captain, selected from one of their number.

Following their release from the Draft Board, the fifteen young men will be the guests of local business men, who have prepared to give them a banquet at Crodale's Cafe, this afternoon at five o'clock.

To-morrow morning the fifteen young selects will report at the Court House, where they will be plentifully supplied with cigarettes, tobacco, toilet necessities, etc., by the Committee in charge of the Soldiers' Tobacco Fund. From the Court House the selects, accompanied by the Liberty Drum Corps, of Paris, which has recently been organized by Mr. Rudolph Davis, will march to the L. & N. Passenger Station, where they will board a special car for Camp Zachary Taylor.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Messages have been received here by relatives of the safe arrival in France of Lieut. Clay Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller Ward, of near Paris. Lieut. Ward sailed with his company about three weeks ago. He was stationed at Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., during the winter.

Russell T. Stephens, of near Hutchison, has returned from Camp Zachary Taylor, where he went recently with a detachment of Bourbon county draftees. Stephens was granted an honorable discharge from the service on account of physical defects which would preclude his taking active service.

Recruiting Officer Sharp, who has his headquarters at the Windsor Hotel, in this city, secured another recruit for the army service Friday, when Edna Norman, of Sadieville, Scott county, came to Paris, and volunteered in the service of Uncle Sam. Norman reported at Ft. Thomas, Saturday, and was assigned to the infantry branch of the service.

Vance Huffman, formerly of Paris, who was dangerously injured by a kicking mule at Camp Shelby, Hattiesburg, Miss., some time ago, and whose life hung in the balance for a time, is recovering rapidly at the Base Hospital, at Camp Sheridan, near Montgomery, Alabama, and will be able to come home soon to recuperate.

Mr. Alvin Thompson, who is a member of the Dr. Barrow Base Hospital Unit No. 40, at Camp Zachary Taylor, spent Sunday and Monday in Paris as a guest of relatives. The Unit has received orders to move and will leave soon for some Atlantic port, preparatory to embarkation for France. Several Bourbon county boys are in the Unit.

Mr. Andrew Jackson Turney, of Paris, left Monday for Louisville, where he went as vanguard for the Bourbon county draftees, who will leave for Camp Zachary Taylor, Wednesday morning. Mr. Turney will visit relatives in Louisville and join the Bourbon county men at their place of detention near Louisville, and proceed to Camp Taylor with them.

Troop trains have been passing through Paris recently in sections. On Saturday night four trains passed through, loaded to the guards with troops. On Sunday night three trains passed through, all destined for Southern frontiers. The troops were for the most part new recruits, being transferred from the recruiting stations in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky to the Southern camps.

Sergt. Allen Huddleston and Corp. Walter McPherson, Bourbon county boys from Camp Zachary Taylor, spent Sunday and Monday in this city with relatives. They are greatly pleased with conditions in the camp, and say Uncle Sam is the best provider in the world. Both men are in perfect health and fit and ready to show their ability as first-class fighting men.

Bourbon county boys who go to the army camps now do not seem to have much time to linger. Of the number who went from here a few days ago several have already been transferred to other points. Relatives in this city have received information from Frank Roche, who left with the Lexington delegation, that he had been transferred to an army post in Texas. Private Lapsley Haskins, who went from Paris with the last delegation from the county, writes that he has been transferred to Chester, Pa., on duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Mitchell have received a letter from their son, Corp. Jos. G. Mitchell, "somewhere in France." Corp. Mitchell stated that he had been riding for three days on a train, after leaving the transport, which brought him and the other Kentucky boys over. He said the road was double-tracked, and the roadbed as good as any in Kentucky. He spent one Sunday in a beautiful city in France and had as good food as heart could desire. James Ellis, the Mastin, and Johnson boys from Bourbon county, were still with him. He had not been sick a day since he left, and was feeling fine.

Lucien Arnsperger, of Paris, who has been with an ambulance corps at Camp Sherman, near Columbus, O., and who accompanied another division of the service to Camp Sheridan, near Montgomery, Ala., several months ago, is now on his way overseas. He sent a long distance telephone message of parting to his mother, Mrs. Ruby Arnsperger, in this city, a few days ago, stating that he was on his way to an army camp in Virginia, from where they would be sent overseas. Mr. Revell Whitridge, son of Mrs. Sallie Wilson Whitridge, formerly of Paris, is in the same division with Mr. Arnsperger, and accompanied him on the trip. They have been at Camp Sheridan since September, 1917.

Mr. Dennis Snapp, of the Kentuckian-Citizen, is in receipt of the following telegram from his brother,

REGISTRATION OF FEMALE ALIEN ENEMIES TO BE HELD.

Chief of Police Fred Link has received instructions from the office of the United States Marshal for this district, directing him to give publicity to the registration of female alien enemies, which will be held in this city from June 17 to 26, inclusive.

The registration will be conducted by Chief Link in his office at police headquarters in the City Hall. The hours will be from 6:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m., beginning on Monday, June 17 and will continue each day thereafter, with the exception of Sunday, June 23, between the hours noted above, up to and including Wednesday, June 26. Each female alien enemy of the United States in this vicinity will be required to undergo a registration exactly like that conducted some time ago for male alien enemies, and will also be required to furnish finger print identification, just as in the case of the men.

In nonurban areas the registration will take place in the postoffice. In nonurban areas immediately contiguous to a city receiving mail on rural free-delivery routes emanating from the postoffice in such city or served with mail by the postoffice in such city, the registrant will be required to register in the postoffice in that city, but she will be deemed a registrant of the nonurban area in which she resides.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

Through the real estate agency of Harris & Speakes, of this city, Saturday, Mrs. J. H. Campbell sold to Mrs. Will Case, of near Hutchison, her farm on the Bethlehem pike, near Paris, containing three and one-half acres, for $5,000. The place is well improved, contains a nice seven-room cottage, and all necessary out-buildings. One and one-half acres are being cultivated in a war garden and with fruit trees. Mrs. Campbell's son, Mr. Hugh Campbell, formerly of Paris, is in the army service, being connected with the Quartermaster's Department at the Jeffersonville, Indiana, Government Commissary Depot.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF LITTLE ROCK GRADED SCHOOL.

The commencement exercises of the Little Rock Graded School, at Little Rock, this county, were held in the Little Rock Christian church, on Monday evening, in the presence of a large audience. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered to the graduating class on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock, by the pastor of the church, Rev. Ward Russell. The class of '18 is composed of the following: Sallie Mae Banta, Sue Boardman, Louvenia Thomason, John Bivins and Howard Crump.

On Sunday afternoon, the annual exhibition of the Domestic Science and Art, Manual Training and Agriculture departments of the Little Rock Training School, (colored), was held from two to four o'clock. An interesting address was delivered by Prof. W. L. Shobe, of Frankfort. Prof. C. T. Cook is principal of the Little Rock School, which is beginning to acquire fame as one of the best in the State of its character.

OPENING OF ANNEX TO MASSIE MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

The annex to the W. W. Massie Memorial Hospital is completed. This annex was made possible by the generous contribution of Miss Isabella Horton, also by funds collected by the Paris Commercial Club.

For the benefit of the colored people of Paris and Bourbon county, who so generously contributed to the furnishing and equipment of the colored annex, it has been decided to set apart Wednesday, May 29th, as a day to open the building for their inspection, between the hours of nine a. m. and five p. m. It is to be hoped that many colored people will take advantage of this opportunity to see the work that has been accomplished for their benefit.

It has been decided to open the colored annex for the reception of patients May 30.

INAUGURATES MOVEMENT TO HELP CRIPPLES IN WAR.

An organization styled "The Two Sticks Society," having for its prime object aid for cripples who desire to help in winning the great world-war for America and her allies, has been perfected by a former Paris woman, with every indication of its becoming a success.

Mr. Sherman Snapp, who is now in Uncle Sam's service:

"Camp Lewis, Wash., May 24.
"Dennis V. Snapp, Paris, Ky.
"Arrived at camp this Friday evening. Stopped in San Francisco, Calif., and Portland, Oregon. My address will be: Ninth Company, Third Battalion, One Hundred and Sixty-Sixth Depot Brigade, Camp Lewis, Wash. Will be assigned to permanent company after twenty-one days.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

On Memorial Day.

More than half a century ago was fought the war between the blue and the gray, which welded the States into one mighty, inseparable Union. To-day from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Northern boundaries to the waters of the Gulf of Mexico on the South, we know but one country and one flag, the United States of America and the Stars and Stripes.

While we prepare to pay our tribute to the few remaining old and feeble veterans who bore arms on both sides in that memorable struggle, those who died on the field of honor, or have since passed to their rest, their sons and their grandsons are marching shoulder to shoulder, and taking part in an infinitely greater struggle—a struggle not for the preservation of a nation, but for the preservation of a world democracy, humanity and freedom for all time to come.

The annual observance of Memorial Day this year will have a deeper significance to every loyal American than ever before, and there is greater need for honoring the heroes of the Civil War than ever in the past. A nation-wide tribute will prove to those who have left home, family, friends and friends, who have sacrificed all to serve their country at home or abroad that they will not soon be forgotten.

Memorial Day takes on a new significance for us all in this year of grace, 1918. In past years we have laid our flowers on the graves of the dead in loving and patriotic appreciation of the fact that they saw their duty and did it. Thursday the flowers will be laid as usual, but they will be but the withered blossoms of the soul unless we lay them with the determination to do our duty in the crisis that confronts our country, even as they did theirs. It will be a day for the searching of souls; for a purging of all sloth and unwillingness to do our part; of noble shame at our failure heretofore to live up to the greatness of the opportunity which exists for every real American. It will be a day for manhood and for memories.

In past years Memorial Day in Paris has been indifferently observed. It should be different now. It will be different this time next year, after the Huns have been exterminated, and the dead bodies of some of Bourbon county's boys have been brought home. Then we will see Memorial Day in a different light. It will be brought home to us the real meaning of the day.

Men of Forty.

What healthy man, prior to the war, said to himself at the age of forty: I am a man of declining physical powers, of lessened strength and endurance?

And it was not the men of forty, but the army experts, who said at the beginning of the war that boys rather than men of the late thirties or men of the early forties were needed as soldiers.

If it is necessary to raise the draft limit to 40—and there is advocacy of it—the raising of the age will bring into the army large numbers of men who are on the sunny side of middle age and who are as fit as middle strings.

It should be borne in mind that there has been no sort of indication that men of forty or above that age believe that the draft age should be such that they could not be included in the draft.

It is, of course, true that men of forty are more likely to be so situated that their leaving America would be at a considerable financial loss, and a majority of them possibly have heavy domestic obligations, but if any army of 5,000,000 is needed and if men of forty are needed the men of that age will be found to be first rate material.

The Great Duty.

As we go about our daily tasks in peace and safety men are dying every minute on the battle field of Europe to save civilization. Our own gallant soldiers are shedding their blood in France and our allies engulfed in the waters of the Atlantic as they go in defense of America's rights and honor.

Upon our performance of the work committed to us depend the lives of thousands of men and women, the fate of many nations, the preservation of civilization and humanity itself; and the more efficient and prompt we people of America are in doing our part, the more quickly will this war come to an end and the greater the number of our soldiers and sailors who will be saved from death and suffering and the greater number of the people of other nations released from bondage and saved from death.

To work, to save, to economize, to give financial support to the Government is a duty of the Nation and to the world and it is especially a duty to our fighting men who on land and sea are offering their lives for their country and their countrymen.

Torpedo Your Grouch!

Look on the bright side. It is the right side. The hour may be cheerless and somber with clouds, but it will be no better to wear a gloomy and sad countenance. It is the sunshine and not the clouds that makes the flowers. The sky is blue where it is black once. You have troubles—so have others. None are free from them. That would be a dull sea and the sailors would never get skill were there nothing to disturb its surface. There is more virtue in a sunbeam than in a whole hemisphere of cloud and gloom.

Be Careful!

It is always best to wait for the evidence before passing judgment. When you hear reports detrimental to young ladies or gentlemen, don't be hasty in forming conclusions. It is better to be charitable when any one is in trouble. To-day it is some one else's boy or girl; to-morrow it may be yours.

How To Be Happy, Though—

Women should grow more devoted and men fonder after marriage if they have the slightest idea of being happy as wives and husbands. It is losing sight of this fundamental truth which leads to hundreds of divorces. Yet many a man will scold his wife who would never think of breathing a harsh word to his sweet-heart, and many a wife will look glum and morose on her husband's return who had only smiles and words of cheer for him when he was her suitor.

The Battle Cry.

Strike at the root of the evil. The house fly in horse manure, kitchen offal and the like. Dispose of these materials in such a way that the house fly cannot propagate. Screen all the doors and windows and insist that your grocer, butcher, baker, and everyone from whom you buy food stuffs do the same.

INSPECTORS TO ERADICATE HOG CHOLERA IN STATE.

Six bureau inspectors appointed by the Federal government to assist in the eradication of hog cholera in Kentucky have been secured through the energy of Mat Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture. He has secured the consent of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board to furnish one veterinary for each one furnished by the Federal government.

The Federal Government will send to Kentucky an inspector for the control and eradication of tuberculosis in dairy and beef cattle. Ten Federal and State veterinarians are already in the field engaged in the control of animal diseases. Commissioner Cohen aims to put Kentucky in the "accredited States list and save the farmers $1,000,000 annually which they lose by disease among live stock."

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

The Food Administration prosecutes its patriotic war work at a few points in Kentucky where some Prohibitionist does not bob up and demand to be informed why the Government does not forbid the cultivation of tobacco. These gentry will probably go into spontaneous combustion when they read the news that the Government, instead of doing this, has decided, on the recommendation of Gen. Pershing, to issue tobacco to our soldiers as a part of their regular rations.

Our observation has been that the best war experts are those who are not writing anything now.

And after she marries him, sometimes her ideal doesn't give her a square deal.

FIRST LETTER TO LOUISVILLE BY AIRPLANE MAIL.

The Louisville Post publishes a fac simile engraving of the envelope in which Mr. and Mrs. Percy C. Henry, formerly of Paris, received a letter in Louisville, delivered by airplane mail service. The Post publishes the following interesting account, which will interest the Paris friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Henry:

"The envelope to carry the first and up to this time the only letter received in Louisville by way of the airplane mail service, inaugurated on May 15, is reproduced in the above engraving. The production is complete with the exception of the stamp, which can not be engraved under the laws of the United States. A letter sent by airplane costs 24 cents and a special stamp is provided for it. The stamp is oblong, smaller than a special delivery stamp and bears the picture of a combat plane.

"Percy C. Henry, Jr., to whom the letter was sent, isn't in Louisville, but his father, Percy Henry, Sr., president of the Louisville Meat Market, is preserving the letter carefully, as it marks an epoch in American transportation—the first airplane mail delivery. The letter was mailed in New York and went from there to Washington by way of Philadelphia in the airplane. At Washington the flier ended his trip and the mail was transferred to rail, completing its journey to Louisville. The circular postmark shows that this is a 'first-trip' letter.

"Percy Henry, Jr., is one of the members of the Aerial League and has just succeeded in winning his commission as first lieutenant in the American Flying Corps, although he is only twenty years old. He enlisted in the aviation section last fall and after spending a short time in preliminary tests at Berkeley, Cal., was sent to San Diego, Cal., for training. He showed a natural talent for the flying game and although he has been too modest to write home his achievements, letters from his friends in Louisville have disclosed that young Henry is a wonder at stunt flying and has broken the cross-country record for the San Diego camp, flying 300 miles in one flight. He is an expert at the nose dives, tail spins and other antics of the air. Two weeks ago Henry was awarded his commission and has been transferred to Dallas for advanced training.

"To celebrate the inauguration of the aerial mail service, the Aerial League sent letters to all of its members via the aeroplane mail, and its letter to Henry is the first to reach Louisville. It has been in Mr. Henry's possession for several days, and he says that it will remain there for many years."

RELATIVE TO FOUR-MINUTE MEN.

J. E. Kavanaugh, assistant to National Chairman Vanderlip, writes State Headquarters:

"There seems to be a good deal of misunderstanding on the part of some of the State Directors and their workers in connection with the plan of operation of the Four-Minute Men.

"There are about seventeen thousand men in the organization, controlled from Washington. A bulletin is issued every two weeks supplying these Four-Minute Men, through their State Directors, with material, suggested speeches, etc., on the particular topic that is to be presented nationally during the two weeks following.

"These programs, you will see, have to be planned months in advance. It is, therefore, impossible for local Four-Minute Men to comply with requests coming from our State Directors for assistance in the War Savings campaign.

"We were given their assistance for two weeks in January and we are assured that we can have them for a couple of weeks later on in the year, but it will have to be some time after the first of July, because every one up to that date is provided for."

EVERY CITIZEN MAY HELP TO CATCH DISLOYALISTS.

Every citizen may act as a volunteer detective to assist government officers in ferreting out persons suspected of disloyal actions or utterances, says a statement issued by Attorney General Gregory, at Washington.

United States attorneys have been told to co-operate with newspapers in their districts so that public notice can be given to the nearest offices of attorneys of the bureau of investigation to which citizens may refer information that they think will be valuable in running down seditious persons.

"The district attorneys are instructed to make clear," says the Attorney General's statement, "that complaints of even the most informal or confidential nature are always welcome and that citizens should feel free to bring their information or suspicions to the attention of the nearest representative of the Department of Justice, or if that is not convenient, communicate with the Department at Washington."

Unnecessary Noises Barred.

The man with the new set of store fangs was alternately eating fresh celery and dry toast. Finally a waiter stepped up and tapped him on the shoulder, saying: "Pardon, sir, but I must call your attention to the fact that this hotel is located in the hospital zone."—Farm Life.

TO BID ON WOOL FROM WHITE HOUSE SHEEP.

President Wilson has presented to the American Red Cross sheep, fleece from the White House sheep. Each governor has been requested to auction two pounds of it.

Governor Stanley has accepted the offer for Kentucky in the following telegram: "Will be more than pleased to receive bids as per your suggestion for White House wool. I assure you it affords me genuine pleasure to co-operate most heartily in this matter."

Our position simply is that every mustache should be large enough to look like it wasn't left there by mistake.

STATE FEDERATION CLUBS PLAN FOR WAR WORK.

The State Federation of Women's Clubs of Kentucky will meet in Lexington, June 10, 11 and 12. Mrs. Lafon Riker, of Harrodsburg, State Chairman, will be in charge of the arrangements.

The meeting is to be purely a business convention and is for the purpose of bringing the various clubs throughout the State into closer relationship in order that more intensive war work may be accomplished. An active part has been taken by the clubs in the Liberty loans, the Red Cross, the War Savings Stamps, Food Conservation, Child Welfare and the many other government movements, but that the work may be more complete, more definite and have more far-reaching consequences, this convention of the federation has been called to make definite plans for the greater war work of the Women's Federation of Clubs of Kentucky.

Definite arrangements have not yet been made for the entertainment of the guests, but the business sessions of the club will be held in the Phoenix hotel ballroom.

NOT A CHILD'S MOVEMENT.

The War Savings movement is not a child's movement. It would be a capitalist movement if Uncle Sam had not put the limit at $1,000. If you do not buy your quota of War Savings Stamps you really have no right to complain if men with large amounts of money are given the preference in absorbing issues of Government securities in the future.

THE JUNE AMERICAN MAGAZINE

The June American Magazine is filled with news and entertainment of many descriptions. Arthur Brisbane, the famous newspaper editor, has written an article called "What Interest People." A fine picture of Mr. Brisbane is also printed. Lieut. Pat O'Brien, the daring American aviator who fell 8,000 feet from an aeroplane, was captured by the Germans, and then escaped by crawling through Germany for seventy-two days, tells his story. There is also an article about John Browning, the inventor of the Browning gun, telling many new and interesting facts about the man. Marcus Loew tells the story of his life and how he built more than two hundred theatres throughout the country. Emerson Hough, the famous novelist, has written a fine article about deadlines at forty. There is also an article by Bruce Barton about his home town.

The fiction includes Holworthy Hall's new serial, and stories by H. C. Witwer, Mary B. Mullett, William Dudley Pelley, and other well known writers. The Interesting People, Family Money, contests, results and the Sid Says, are all interesting as usual.

A Real Argument.

She is a little five-year-old girl in Ewing street. Of course she had violated a rule of the home and was about to be punished. "Now, papa, what are you going to whip me for?" she asked. "You see, I have already done what you told me not to do and I am sure I will never do it again, so it won't do any good to whip me." And now papa is wondering what will become of the child if her philosophy grows with her years.—Indianapolis News.

Our observation is that it is hard to make a silk shirt look like it isn't overstaying its leave from the laundry.

WORK OR FIGHT REGULATION MOST DRASTIC OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Every man of draft age must work or fight after July 1, under a drastic amendment to the selective service regulations announced by Provost Marshal General Crowder.

Not only idlers, but all draft registrants engaged in what are held to be non-useful occupations are to be haled before local boards and given the choice of a new job or the army.

Gamblers, race track and bucket shop attendants and fortune tellers head the list, but those who will be reached by the new regulation also include waiters and bartenders, theater ushers and attendants, passenger elevator operators and other attendants of clubs, hotels, stores, &c., domestics and clerks in stores.

Deferred classification granted on account of dependents will be disregarded entirely in applying the rule. Theatrical performers were excepted from the regulations at the direction of Secretary of War Baker, who is said to feel that the people cannot do without all amusements in war time, and that other amusements could be disposed with more readily. A man may be at the bottom of Class 1 or even in Class 4, but if he falls within the regulation and refuses to take useful employment, he will be given a new number in Class 1 that will send him into the military service forthwith.

Local boards are authorized to use discretion only where they find that enforced change of employment would result in disproportionate hardship on his dependents.

It had been known for some time that some form of "work or fight" plan had been submitted to President Wilson, but there has been no intimation that it was so far-reaching in scope. Both the military authorities and the Department of Labor officials believe that it will go a long way toward solving the labor problem for farmers, shipbuilders and munition makers, and will end for the present, at least, talk of conscription of labor.

The announcement Thursday gives notice significantly that the list of non-useful occupations will be extended from time to time as necessity requires.

TO REDUCE COAL PRICES TO PUBLIC.

The Railroad Administration, Wednesday proposed to President Wilson that the price of coal to the public be reduced 20 cents a ton. The reason adduced was that the railroads, which have been paying cost for the coal, may be required to pay more, giving the mines a margin of profit on that business.

The householder in Germany can only one-third of the coal he wants. You can get all you need if you buy now.

NEWS OF WOMEN'S WORK INTERESTING TO CLUB WOMEN.

Red Cross Lawn Fete in Mr. Sweeney Ray's Yard.

On Wednesday evening the boys and girls of the Hill Top—Higgins and Walker avenues—will serve strawberries, ice cream and cake. Proceeds for the Red Cross. In their enthusiastic patriotism these young folks put some of us elders to shame. Let us lend them all possible encouragement. They may be bearing the burdens of the war a few years hence.

During April only seventy-one registered nurses, living in the Lake Division States, enrolled with the Red Cross for nursing service abroad or at the base hospitals in American cantonments.

This was eleven less than enrolled in the Lake Division during March.

To secure its quota of 500 nurses' enrollments during March, April and May, the Lake Division Bureau of Nursing must secure 347 enrollments by June 1.

Kentucky must keep abreast. Our registration is being arranged for. Get ready.

The Stimulation of Registration.

A report from Pennsylvania indicates that registration is progressing well in that State. Just now the census is being used to secure women for land and army units.

In addition, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, South Carolina, Oregon, Arkansas and Alabama have reported progress in taking census of the woman power of their States. Michigan secured special training for co-eds at Ann Arbor so that they might act as registrars in their home towns during the spring vacation. Pennsylvania has the credit of placing 1,237 volunteer and paid workers in Government service whose names were taken from registration cards. Illinois comes second, with 754 registered volunteers that were placed at work. New Hampshire used their registration cards in an attempt to enroll 10,000 women to supplement men now employed in factories.

At the Red Cross Rooms.

Saturday—D. A. R.
An unusual condition faces us—only one day taken. This is due to the fact that the other days, from the fifth week in the month, for which no calendar has been arranged.

Women of the Georgia division are helping to build ships by registering workers. The Georgia director of the United States Service Reserve testifies that in Fulton, Bibb, and Floyd Counties the women have read the literature sent to them; they have studied the registration cards upon which the work of the United States Service Reserves is clearly explained; they have offered their services to the chairmen of the county councils and have published the news in the papers in their community. That is one way women can help and are helping to build ships.

Uncle Sam's Ten Commandments

1. Thou shalt not evict, for non-payment of rent, a soldier's dependents, under penalty of $10,000 fine.
2. Thou shalt not cut off a soldier's life insurance because of delayed premiums.
3. Thou shalt not foreclose a mortgage on a soldier's property.
4. Thou shalt not take away a soldier's home on which he has made part payment.
5. Thou shalt not sell a soldier's property because of his failure to pay the taxes, national, State or local.
6. Thou shalt not settle a lawsuit against a soldier during his absence.
7. If a soldier sue, the courts shall postpone action until he can attend to it.
8. If a soldier have a mine, or timber, or farm claim, assessments on which are overdue, it shall be held for him.
9. Honor thy soldier and thy sailor, that they days may be long in the land of Liberty.
10. No man hath greater love than he that offereth his life for the world's sake, and it is commanded that neither lawyers, nor the loan-sharks, nor the gatherers of titles shall fatten on him.

The above is copied from a placard issued by the Summit Co. (O.) Draft Board and the Akron Chapter Home Service Section.

What Can I Do About It?

"My baby is two years old exactly. He is just as tall as the Government table says he ought to be—33 1/4 inches. He doesn't weigh but 24 pounds, though, and the table says he ought to be 3 pounds and 2 ounces heavier. What can I do about it?"

This is the sort of question which mothers are asking of the busy women who are weighing and measuring the children as a part of the nation-wide test of the welfare of American children. The success of the test as an aid in saving the lives of 100,000 children under five during Children's Year will be determined by the way mothers respond to the challenge in this question—my child is under weight; what can I do about it?

If a young child's weight is as much as 2 pounds below the average for his height this should be a warning to his parents that the child's nutrition is not normal, according to the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor. If the weight falls markedly below the average the Children's Bureau suggests that the child be examined by a physician to see whether some fault in hygiene or diet or some defect or sickness is causing the malnutrition.

PAGEANT OF PROGRESS RE- MARKABLY WELL PRESENTED

The members of the Epworth League Chapter of the Methodist church gave a remarkably clever presentation of "The Pageant of Progress" at the church Sunday night. The church was crowded with an appreciative audience, everyone of them thoroughly enjoying the presentation.

The Pageant was presented in three episodes, with no pauses between. It was beautifully conceived and brilliantly executed presentation, showing the progress made by the Epworth League during its twenty-eight years' existence. Fifty-six persons took part in the playlet, the program of which is given below:

You Won't Have to Wait For Your Pass Book

The Depositor.

"Fine! This statement handed to me with my canceled checks once a month tells just how my account stands. I say this is real bank service. It has the pass book beat a mile."

You will no longer need to leave your pass book (your receipt for deposits) with us a day or more at the last of every month in order to find out how your account stands.

With the Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine, which we are putting to work in our accounting department, we will have every depositor's account posted up to date at all times.

A neatly printed, machine-figured statement of your checks and deposits, and the balance of your account, will come to you every month with your canceled checks.

Your pass book will show only the amount deposited. And if you ever want a statement of your account in a hurry, we can give it to you with every check and deposit listed right up to date inside of five minutes.

The Monthly Statement System is an improvement in our service to you that we are sure will earn your approval. It is less burdensome, quicker, more accurate, and far more satisfactory to everybody concerned than the old method of calling in and balancing pass books.

Your first machine printed statement will be ready July 1st. Tell us what you think of it.

THE WEATHER

Farmers and others interested in the growing and marketing of crops of various kinds are greatly tickled with the kind of weather we are having just now, being just what has been needed to bring out the crops that have been in the growing stage for so long.

For several days the past week the mercury ranged well up in the tube, at times going close to the one hundred mark. Frequent rains have also helped the crop-makers, and all seems well as far as it has gone with the gardeners and agriculturists. Tobacco men have been taking advantage of the good "season" and have been putting out their plants.

THURSDAY MEMORIAL DAY

Next Thursday, May 30, will be a legal holiday, being the annual observance of Memorial or Decoration Day. All the banks and the postoffice will be closed. The barber shops will close from noon on that day until Friday morning.

It is hardly probable there will be any public observance of the day here, as it has been in the past. For many years the colored G. A. R. observed the day by marching to the colored cemetery and decorating the graves of their departed comrades, but their ranks have become so thinned that the observance has fallen into disuse. Still to many the day will be one that will bring many memories, and the graves of the dead in the local cemetery will be decorated with flowers by individuals. Confederate and Pythian decoration days come on different dates, sometimes in June.

BOY SCOUTS HIKE.

About forty members of the Boy Scouts went on a "hike" Friday evening, and had a most enjoyable time. They left Paris about 2:15 Friday afternoon, marched out the Georgetown pike, thence out the Cynthia pike, to the home of Mr. J. Miller Ward, where they pitched their tents and "camped out" in true military style. Sentries were posted and the guard changed at regular intervals. All the requirements of military life were observed. The young warriors were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Saturday, and were given the liberty of the farm, a privilege of which they took the full advantage. Bathing, scouting, "tracking" and inspecting farm methods gave the boys plenty of amusement and profitable occupation. They returned Saturday evening as happy a set of youngsters as ever wore the khaki.

FORMER RESIDENT SEES MANY CHANGES IN PARIS.

Mr. William E. Hixson, of Clexico, Call., a former resident of Paris many years ago, is here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. J. M. Cooper, and other relatives. Mr. Hixson came to Paris after a visit to his sister, Mrs. W. W. Spencer, in Lexington.

Mr. Hixson is a graduate of the class of '73 at the old State College, now the University of Kentucky, leaving Kentucky in his senior year forty-four years ago for Texas, where he remained until seventeen years years ago, when he went to California, where he has since resided. This is his first visit to Paris and to Kentucky in forty-four years.

His people are giving him a most cordial welcome here. He says that while there has been many changes in the old town and Paris does not look like it did forty-four years ago, he is enjoying everything just the same. He marveled at the progressive spirit Paris shows, and took a great deal of interest in the appearance of our handsome homes and business houses.

Mr. Hixson will go to Mason county and to Fleming county to visit friends and relatives there, coming back to Paris and Lexington for another visit to his sisters, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Spencer, before returning to his home in California.

INDOOR WORK MADE HEALTH BECOME POOR

But Louisville Man Feels Good
Again Since Tanlac Built Up System.

"My work as bookkeeper is all indoors and I guess it must have been the confinement that made my system get all run down," said J. O. Kampshaefer, 3403 Greenwood avenue, Louisville, Ky.

"My system felt run down all over and I was getting worse. I was so weak that sometimes I'd just doze off to sleep while sitting in a chair. It was just from sheer weakness, I guess.

"I tried Tanlac as a spring tonic about two years ago and it helped me a lot. So when I got run down recently I turned to Tanlac again.

"Well, sir, Tanlac surely has helped me. It has brought back my health in fine shape. I'm not run down or weak any more. I've taken four bottles of Tanlac and it really is remarkable the way it has improved me.

"All my friends know that I would not give a statement like this unless Tanlac had done just what I say it has."

WHEN A PRISONER IS EX-CHANGED.

Ivan Rossiter, captured by the Germans, and later exchanged, says in the May Farm and Fireside:

"Then I lay down, not to sleep, but to think. I thought of the day I enlisted in Canada, of leaving home, the training camps, the trip overseas to England, the training in England, going across the channel to Flanders, the terrific fighting at Ypres, of the many friends who fell on that bloody battlefield, how I was wounded and captured, the inhuman treatment I received at the hands of the German surgeons, who had four husky Germans hold me down while they cut five bones out of my wrist and amputated my middle finger at the second joint when I was wounded in the palm of the hand, the kicks and cuffs from prison guards, and the terrible stuff the Germans called food in the prison camps."

PACKAGES ARE BARRED.

Notice has been received here from the Y. M. C. headquarters in New York that no packages will be accepted for delivery to the men in France. As the number of secretaries now in France is about two thousand, and the parcel post has been cut off by the Government, the number of packages has increased until it is impossible to handle them. The notice says that articles imperatively needed, such as eyeglasses, may be forwarded, but such things as candies and food will not be accepted.

HOLD THE BATTLE LINE IN FRANCE

Feed the American Army—Save the Wheat Flour

THE PATRIOTIC PLEDGE

Ky. — 1918.

I have a family of _____ persons living at my home. I have on hand _____ pounds of wheat flour. I agree that in my home we will not use more than six pounds of wheat products in thirty days for each person, including flour, crackers, Victory bread, macaroni, etc., until the next harvest comes in August. I agree to hold at my home all wheat flour which I have on hand over a thirty days' supply for my family on the ration of six pounds per month per person, and to dispose of such surplus as the United States Food Administration may direct in the interest of National Safety. If my surplus flour is given to the Government, I am to be paid what it cost me.

I make and sign this pledge as an American citizen to aid in the winning of the war.

P. O. Address _____

Cut out the above pledge. Fill in the blanks. Sign your name and address and mail to your County Food Administrator at once.

Wheat! Wheat!! Wheat!!! This is the great national necessity at the present time. It is needed for the immense armies we are sending abroad at the present time. It is needed for the Allied armies who are so gloriously holding the Battle Line in Western France until the Americans can get "on the job" and drive the German Hordes back across the Rhine.

It is wheat flour that is so badly needed for bread stuffs over there. It is wheat flour that the American Government must have and our American Patriots at home must provide it by savings in the homes. There is no other source of supply until the next harvest. Thus duty calls us to our part in the war.

Knowing that all loyal citizens are glad and willing to conform their households to the six pound ration until the new harvest, but knowing also that we have some among us who are disloyal and pro-German and perhaps not averse to seeing sacrificed the splendid brave youth of the nation who are going from our homes to fight for our freedom, the Government is protecting our loyal citizens against those disloyal in meeting this call for the saving of wheat flour. There is on the Statute Books a law against hoarding under which those who hold an unreasonable amount of flour are being prosecuted by the Department of Justice in the Federal Courts. The penalty for convicted hoarders is a fine not to exceed $5,000, and imprisonment not to exceed two years, or both.

The Food Administration has determined the amount of wheat that is available from now until harvest for the American people. It has determined that a reasonable use must not exceed six pounds per month per person and has stated that it is unreasonable in this emergency to have on hand more than a thirty days' supply on this ration for our householders.

Any person who has on hand more than this amount is liable to prosecution as a hoarder of flour under the law on orders from the Food Administration. The procedure is by indictment in the Federal Court.

Recognizing, however, that many patriotic persons, following practices formerly considered legitimate and usual, have laid in larger quantities of flour than in this time of National Emergency is considered reasonable and right, and that many of these persons acted in so doing from proper motives, the Food Administration in the interest of fairness and justice, now offers to those citizens who have thus acted in good faith, the opportunity of showing their patriotism and insuring themselves against the notoriety and penalties that would result from prosecution.

No person in Kentucky, therefore, who makes and files with their County Food Administrator the statement disclosed in the Pledge at the head of this article and holds his surplus flour for the Government, agreeing to turn it over if it is needed, will be prosecuted by the Government for hoarding flour.

The Food Administration will not call for your surplus unless it is necessary, and when it does call, will leave you your thirty days' supply, but it must know where the flour is and it must have your promise to turn it over as a measure of National Safety.

In some Kentucky counties, owing to shortage of supply, it has already been found necessary to direct that excess holdings be marketed, but it is only in cases of emergency that such action is contemplated.

When this call comes to you think of the needs of our soldiers, the brave boys who fight our battle for freedom, for the safety of our homes from the menace of the Huns. Don't let anyone say you are a slacker because you have not offered your surplus to the Government in time of need. Every pound of flour now counts in this time of trouble. Remember also that the influence of your offer on other citizens not so patriotically inclined, may save the lives of many brave boys from your own home town. Make your sacrifice for them and inscribe your name in this pledge on your Country's Roll of Honor!

FRED M. SACKETT,

Federal Food Administrator for Kentucky.

May 17th, 1918.

Canada Reduces Wheat Consumption.

Home consumption of wheat in Canada is now being reduced about 50 per cent to make possible an increase in wheat exports.

—Save Food.—

Be More Efficient Than the Enemy.

"The only way to win the war," Progressive Farmer believes, "is for us to be more efficient than the enemy. If the Hun soldier is efficient, ours must be made more efficient. . . . If the German farmer is efficient in feeding and clothing the German army, the American farmer must prove himself more efficient."

—Save Food.—

U. S. Cornmeal Output Doubled.

A canvass of the whole country by the Food Administration shows that the actual milling output of cornmeal increased from 3,000,000 barrels in October to nearly 6,000,000 barrels for March. During the past 18 months, the output of corn flour has increased 500 per cent.

—Save Food.—

No Sacrifice, Just a Change.

The program of food conservation in the United States leads Missouri Republican to say: "We Americans have not yet been asked for any real sacrifice. Our meatless day and wheaten meals are merely a matter of changing the bill-of-fare, substituting one food for another and are nothing compared with the rationing imposed on the English people and the voluntary rationing asked of the Canadians."

Says the Idaho Farmer: "The bread ration of the allied soldiers now facing the fearful onslaughts of German guns and gas has been reduced. Why? Because they haven't enough to go around. They haven't enough wheat to make their war bread out of. What are we going to do about it?"

—Save Food.—

"It is the War."

In France fifty per cent of the total energy of the people is said to go into military effort. Hardships, hunger, sorrow—all suffering is excused with the explanation, "It is the war." This is the kind of spirit needed in every American home.

—Save Food.—

Put Every Acre to Work.

In an editorial reviewing handicaps and hardships of the past, Michigan Business Farming has this to say about the future: "The time for finding fault with things, which for reasons perhaps more cogent than we can realize can not be changed for the time being at least, has passed. Now that the planting season is near and the farmer must soon decide upon his acreage, let us have done with fruitless complaining, put our hands to the plow and do OUR part in winning the war. . . . Never let it be said that a soldier suffering hunger or that a child in far-off Belgium died from starvation because you failed in this great hour of need to grow the mite of food which might have nourished them."

SET AN EXAMPLE OF HONESTY

Street Car Passenger Left Fare With Woman Who Took Advantage of Opportunity to Be Dishonest.

The man in the corner seat looked worried. At last he spoke. "Madam," he said, "will you kindly take this nickel and give it to the conductor when he comes around? I have been trying to catch his eye, but he apparently does not see me. Will you see that he gets it?"

The woman sat bewildered in the presence of such extraordinary honesty, but she good-naturedly accepted the trust. After the man left the car, she, too, attempted to establish a line of communication with the conductor, but failed. She was nearing her own destination, but conscience forbade her leaving the car until her neighbor's fare had been paid. Before that feat was accomplished she had been carried four blocks past her street. When she finally got home her temper was slightly damaged.

"But you shouldn't have been so accommodating," said her husband. "You should have got off at your corner."

"But how could I?" the woman argued. "With that man's honesty before me as an example of right living I simply had to turn his nickel over to the conductor."

"Maybe you are right," said the man admiringly. "Women certainly do have fine notions about these things. But it is too bad. You had to walk back."

"Oh, no, I didn't walk," she said. "I rode."

"And that cost you another nickel."

"No, it didn't," she said. "The conductor never even looked my way when he came through, and I got off without having to pay."

HALF-WAY WORK DEGRADING

Should Confess Our Poverty or Parsimony, But Not Belle Our Human Intellect, Says Writer.

We are, none of us, wrote Ruskin, so good architects as to be able to work habitually beneath our strength; and yet there is not a building that I know of, lately raised, wherein it is not sufficiently evident that neither architect nor builder has done his best. It is the especial characteristic of modern work. All old work nearly has been hard work. It may be the hard work of children, of barbarians, of rustics; but it is always their utmost. Let us have done with this kind of work at once; cast off every temptation to it; do not let us degrade ourselves voluntarily, and then mutter and mourn over our shortcomings; let us confess our poverty or our parsimony, but not belie our human intellect. It is not a question of doing more, but of doing better. Do not let us boss our roofs with wretched, half-worked, blunt-edged rosettes; do not let us flank our gates with rigid imitations of medieval statuary. Such things are mere insults to common sense, and only unfit us for feeling the nobility of their prototypes.

Sunlight Distressing.

In addition to the wind there is another peculiarity of the inland ice which adds to the difficulties to be encountered in the Arctic. That is the extreme intensity of the sunlight, which can be realized only by those who have experienced it. During the summer months the sun shines as brightly there in clear weather as anywhere further south, and this continuous brilliancy is intensified a hundredfold by the reflection from endless fields of glistening, sparkling snow, unrelieved by a single object. The strongest eyes can stand such a blinding glare only a few hours without protection. We always wore heavy smoked glasses, and when in camp found it impossible to sleep without still further protecting the eyes by tying a narrow band of fur about them to exclude the light. Only when a storm is brewing does this intense light become subdued. At such times, however, the sky and snow take on a peculiar gray, opaque light, which is even more trying than the sunlight.—Century Magazine.

Ever See a Dingonek?

The dingonek is a huge, unclassified aquatic monster, says the Wide World Magazine. It resembles in many of its characteristics the extinct dinosaur, a huge reptile of the Mesozoic period, fossils of which have been discovered by paleontologists in the sandstone strata both of the African and American continents. It lives in Lake Victoria Nyanza and its numerous tributaries and there is no record of the monster having been seen in any other part of the world. Whether it is a descendant of one of the huge prehistoric saurians that has by a process of adaptation—living far away from the encroachments of civilized man—continued with but slight modifications through prodigious ages to the present time, or whether it is an unclassified reptile or amphibian, it is equally impossible to say, as no specimen exists either of its bones or of its skin. That this monster does exist, however, there can be no particle of doubt, as the testimony of authoritative eyewitnesses cannot be reasonably discredited.

Useless.

Mrs. Crossley was enjoying a shopping tour and was critically examining various articles on the counter of the dry goods emporium.

"What is this thing used for?" she finally asked.

"I really don't know," answered the clerk. "I think it is intended for a Christmas gift."—Harper's Magazine.

KAISER ON VERGE OF INSANITY AUTHENTIC REPORTS PROCLAIM

Richmond "Journal" Hears Mon-

In Asylum—Kept Secret
For State Reasons and Morale of Army.

IMPERSONATED BY HIS FAMOUS DOUBLE

Deprived of His American Physician.
Dentist and Medicine, Coupled With Military Adversities, Emperor Went Temporarily Insane.

THINKS HIMSELF
GOD'S MESSENGER

The U-Boat "Deutschland," Commanded by Capt. Paul Koenig, Carried Last of American Remedy Upon Which
Ruler's Health
Depended.

RICHMOND, VA., May 27.—The news that the Emperor of Germany was recently confined in an asylum, violently insane, following the defeats of his army is now beginning to filter through the rigid censorship of the German official news bureaus, and what until a few days ago was regarded a wild rumor, is to-day given credence as being an authentic fact.

It has long been known that the Kaiser suffered from a morbid form of incipient insanity. He would sit for hours in gloom, brooding over his atrophied arm, which appeared like a felon's claw and was no more developed than that of a three-year-old child. No one ever dared talk or laugh in his presence, unless he himself led the conversation. He once imprisoned his own mother at Leipsic because she admonished him for kicking a Royal Hussar in the face after having knocked him down.

Of late the Kaiser has become obsessed with the notion that he has a "divine mission to save humanity."
His religious mania has been much accentuated. Years ago the Kaiser's condition was the subject of common gossip, which, for diplomatic reasons, could not be written about in the newspapers. Things happened on the occasion of Roosevelt's visit to the Kaiser which could be explained only as evidence of a mind so erratic as to be bordering on insanity.

Those who have had opportunity to study the Kaiser's case regard it as hereditary. His monomania for all things military, touched with religious mania, has made him tremendously effective as an instrument of the militarist cult. The Kaiser all his life has thought only in terms of war.

Before the war days it was the daily and hourly task of the German foreign office to keep a check on the Kaiser and see that his little insan-ities did not lead to diplomatic consequences. He was constantly under espionage and in tutelage. When he talked too much and too indis-creetly, he was reminded to desist.
When he did or said foolish things to foreign diplomats, apologies and explanations followed from the foreign minister.

It is now stated on good authority that Dr. Wolftrung, of Baden-Baden, the Kaiser's famous double, who, on more than one occasion has been known to pose as the Emperor, was again called upon to play the royal part. It is said that their resemblance is so remarkably similar that the Emperor's own body guards cannot tell them apart.

The Kaiser has always relied greatly upon America for medical advice, his chief surgeon and dentist both being Americans. Likewise, he was known to be entirely dependent upon this country for his medicines, products which were known to greatly relieve his mental and physical distress. Many say that the principal reason which caused the U-boat
"Deutschland" to make her famous trans-Atlantic voyage was the Kaiser's urgent need of these remedies.
Just what success Capt. Paul Koenig met with in securing them is unknown, but since the declaration of war between this country and Germany it is more than probable that he has been without them, and his present condition may be largely due to this fact.

Emperor Wilhelm is known to have used three American remedies very extensively for the past twenty years.
One of them was manufactured by a well-known Detroit pharmaceutical firm, another was compounded by a New York nerve specialist, and the other was Acid Iron Mineral. The latter was always ordered through the Kaiser's personal fiscal agent in New York City, and was used by the Emperor principally as a nerve tonic and blood builder.

Kaiser Wilhelm is not the only member of royalty to have used A-I-M. Emperor Frances Joseph and Queen Wilhelmina were both users of this famous remedy. Naturally, since the war, every precaution has been taken by the proprietors to prevent A-I-M from getting into the hands of the enemy, and they believe they have succeeded.

Acid Iron Mineral not only thins the blood, but strengthens and invigorates it. For those who suffer from the effects of thickened, heavy blood, coagulated and polluted with the waste matter of the winter's accumulation, A-I-M stands without a peer; for it not only thins and purifies the blood, but carries the various impurities out of the system, naturally and effectively. As a general
"spring tonic" and as a prompt relief for that "tired feeling" and rundown condition so prevalent at this season, it remains the only natural, non-corrosive, fully assimilable and digestible iron known to medical science.

On the market over thirty years,
and with thousands upon thousands of testimonials from physicians, lawyers, clergymen, pharmacists and laymen who testify to its merits, A-I-M is the only remedy which is sold with the distinct understanding that its purchase price will be refunded if it fails to benefit in every possible degree. Reject all spurious imitations, which profit-seeking druggists try to foist upon you, and demand the original Acid Iron Mineral. (adv)

A SINGING ARMY TO FRANCE.

The slogan indicates a new determination on the part of the Army
Y. M. C. A. to meet the increasing needs of the soldier boys for music in the camps, according to a bulletin just received here from the Central Department headquarters of the National War Work Council of the Y.
M. C. A. Following the declaration of Maj.-Gen. Harry C. Dale that "a singing army is a winning army,"
the Army Y. M. C. A. is now planning in its work for soldiers throughout the United States to beat the Germans at their own game.

Thirty-eight of the foremost song leaders in this country are now at work in the cantonments of the United States, organizing the enlisted men by companies and barracks and teaching them a score of songs which they may sing together at reviews or on the march. It is stated that 47 such song leaders are provided for and this number will soon be reached. One song leader is being supplied in each of the army camps. In addition there are to be 12 itinerant song leaders who will instruct the men in singing at isolated points. The purpose of the Y. M. C. A. singing program is to develop song leaders from the ranks and make each military unit self-entertaining as it moves "over there."

"Music alone competes with religion in the power to lift up man's heart and soul," says Marshall M.
Bartholomew, in charge of singing instruction for the Y. M. C. A., in a statement just issued. "The two most military nations of the world have long recognized and systematically exploited this power. During a long residence in Germany both before and during the present war, I had opportunity to study at first hand this important phase of army life, and more recently in Japan I made myself familiar with military music. In my opinion, the singing in the German army has done more to keep up the morale of those troops and to stimulate the patriotism of the people than any other single influence."

The State Y. M. C. A. of Kentucky is trying to recruit thirty-five men per month for Army Y. M. C. A. service and a large portion of the men should be able to lead singing.

KENTUCKY MAN PREDICTS END OF WAR IN 1918.

"The great war will be over in 1918, the end of it following the crushing defeat and end of the Kaiser. So plainly declares the Bible, as shown by the following chapters and verses and the reasonable interpretation of them."

From out the mountains of Kentucky came the message to Manager
F. R. McCormick, of the Hotel Dennison, Cincinnati, who declares that up where his friend lives the principal occupations are making moonshine whisky and studying the Bible, and that the natives are experts at both of them. Certainly the mountain seer has found a number of passages which are vividly startling when read in connection with events of the present and past two years.

He refers to the thirteenth chapter of the Apocalypse, written by St.
John, the Apostle, while an exile on the island of Patmos. The first verse reads: "And I saw a beast coming up out of sea, having seven heads and 10 horns, and upon his horns 10 diadems and upon his head names of blasphemy." The eighteenth and last verse of the chapter reads:

"Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding let him count the number of the beast. For it is the number of a man, and the number of him is six hundred sixty-six."

And the numeral letters of "Kaiser" and dominant figure "666" added together make 666, six hundred sixty-six "the number of a man."

It is a very simple cryptogram,
the result, or answer, being easily obtained. To work it spell out "Kaiser" perpendicularly and to the right of each letter place the dominant figure 6. Between the two the numbers of the letters in the word as 1 for "a," 2 for "b," 3 for "c,"

the following will be obtained:
K, eleventh letter 11 6
A, first letter 1 6
I, ninth letter 9 6
S, nineteenth letter 19 6
E, fifth letter 5 6
R, eighteenth letter 18 6

As already quoted, "He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast."

There are verses in this chapter, and in many other chapters of the Bible which apparently have a strong present-day application. For example, in this chapter: "He that shall lead into captivity, shall go into captivity, &c.; the great, even worldwide success of the beast before his final overthrow; the regulation of buying and selling; the repeated references to blasphemy; the coming of the second beast who had two horns like the lamb, but spoke as a dragon."

"And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and power was given to him to do two and forty months."

So reads the fifth verse of the thirteenth chapter. In one version the last words are given as "to continue forty and two months."

All versions agree that "the beast" is to be overcome in three and one half years, counting from July, 1914, this means, January, 1918. Taking all in all it is an interesting story, or game, this working out the war
a la Bible.

PARIS EVIDENCE FOR PARIS PEOPLE.

The Statements of Paris Residents Are Surely More Reliable Than Those of Utter Strangers.

Home testimony is real proof.
Public statements of Paris people carry real weight.

What a friend or neighbor says
compels respect.

The word of one whose home is far away invites your doubts.

Here's a Paris man's statement.

And it's for Paris people's benefit.

Such evidence is convincing.

That's the kind of proof that backs
Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. W. Larkin, farmer, 431 High street, says: "I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, because I have at time had quite a bit of trouble with my back. Often I had a dreadful ache across my kidneys and the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills at these times has never failed to cure me of an attack."

Mr. Larkin is one one of many Paris people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Larkin had, the remedy backed by home
testimony. Foster - Milburn Co.,

WHAT AM I DOING?

Ask yourself this question: "What am I doing toward helping my country win the war?" If you are not doing something don't you think you are a very lukewarm American?

The Government doesn't ask very much of you. It merely asks you to do without unnecessary things and invest your money saved thereby in securities. You can buy War Savings Stamps and assist the nation.

Remember that every time you buy a War Savings Stamp, which is redeemable in gold in 1923, you are firing a shot at Berlin.

LEND—NOT SPEND—YOUR MONEY

If you lend your money to the Government, you may be quite sure that it is going to be used for some national purpose—to prosecute the war successfully, to care for, equip, arm and supply our soldiers in France, to be used by our navy in ridging the seas of the murderous U-boats.

But if you spend your money even with the belief that by putting it into the channels of trade; others into whose hands it comes will lend it to the Government, you will have done something the patriotism of which may be very questionable.

First, you have withdrawn from the supply of material of the nation something to replace which in the market will require labor and material which should be devoted to war purposes.

Second, the person to whom you pay your money may also use it to purchase things requiring material and labor which should be devoted to war purposes. And the person to whom he pays it may repeat the operation.

But when you lend your money to the Government instead of spending it, you will at once lessen the drain to a certain extent on our country's resources, its material, its labor, and its transportation facilities, and in addition you supply your Government with money to be used in winning the war.

Every purchase of a War Savings Stamp is an individual act toward bringing victory to America and her allies.

—The baseball team of the M. M. I. suffered a 4 to 2 defeat Friday on Stoll Field in Lexington, by the Lexington High School team, who romped home with the game in good fashion. The game looked to be an easy one for the M. M. I. up to the eighth inning, but the Lexington team made a quick come-back, and saved the game. A feature of the game was the pitching of Oldham, for the M. M. I., who, although a cripple, pitched a wonderful game, and would have won with better support.

—The Primary and Elementary Grades of the Public School, put on the little operetta entitled "Under the Sugar Plum Tree," at the opera house Friday evening, to a large audience. The operetta was preceded by special music and readings. The operetta was good and the parts well taken. The little folks were trained by Misses Nanny Clarke and Georgia McDaniel, assisted by Miss McGuire, accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Shannon. We are sorry that space will not permit in detail on the program.

WHEN PEACE COMES.

Some day peace will come. Thousands—millions of men—will suddenly be thrown back again into civil life. Consider the vastness of the readjustment that will be necessary. Look back at the period of reconstruction. The day of reckoning is bound to come. Begin to save now. Thrift is the need of the present, the hope of the future.

Liberty Loan Bonds, War Savings, the safest securities in the world, are a wise provision for the day peace comes.

DEATHS.

CASTLEMAN.

—Gen. John Breckinridge Castleman was buried in the Castleman lot at Cave Hill Cemetery, in Louisville, Sunday. A military guard from Camp Zachary Taylor escorted the body from Christ Church Cathedral to the cemetery. Along the route were many friends and comrades of Gen. Castleman. The procession was met at the entrance to the cemetery by Confederate veterans and Knights Templar, who fell in line behind the military escort. As the casket was being lowered into the grave "Taps" was sounded by four buglers from the camp.

PRATT.

—Judge Clifton P. Pratt, 70 years of age, former Attorney General of Kentucky, died at his home at Madisonville, Saturday night, following an illness of several months. Judge Pratt was a candidate on the Republican ticket when Taylor ran against Goebel for Governor, and was the only Republican to hold office during the term. Goebel and the remainder of the Democratic ticket won their contests.

Judge Pratt was stricken with paralysis some time ago and had since been very ill. Judge Pratt returned to Madisonville several years ago and retired from the practice of law. He is survived by a wife and two sons. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon.

WEBB.

—Messages received in Paris by friends bore information of the sudden death near Hutchinson, Kansas, of Mr. John Webb, Jr., a former resident of Paris, where he was for many years engaged in the retail shoe business.

According to later information received here Mr. and Mrs. Webb, who had been residing in Lexington for several years, had been making a tour of the West in their automobile, and when near Hutchinson, Kansas, Mr. Webb was taken suddenly ill, and died in a few hours. The remains were prepared for shipment to his old home in Lexington, where the interment took place.

Mr. Webb was well-known to the people of Paris and the county, with whom he was very popular. He was at one time in the internal revenue service, being a storekeeper-gauger at the old Sam Clay distillery on the North Middletown pike, near Paris, then under the management of the Nicholas J. Welsh Co., of Covington. After leaving the service he opened a retail shoe business in the store room on Main street, now occupied by Lowry & May, in which business he was very successful. Several years ago he closed out his business interests in Paris and moved to Lexington, where he became identified with the tobacco business as buyer for one of the large manufacturing concerns.

He is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Annie Price, two brothers, Mr. Richard S. Webb and Mr. George M. Webb, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Gess, all of Fayette county.

FICKLIN.

—Mr. Wm. T. Ficklin, one of the best-known citizens of Paris, aged ninety-two, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, yesterday afternoon, as the result of injuries received in a fall from a dormer window at his home on Main street some weeks ago. While leaning out of the window Mr. Ficklin lost his hold and fell to the ground below, a distance of about thirty feet. He received a dislocated shoulder blade, both arms were broken, and he sustained internal injuries.

Mr. Ficklin was a native of Fleming county, where he was born in September, 1827. He engaged in merchandising after leaving the country schools, and was very successful. Leaving Fleming he was engaged in business in various parts of the country, and finally landed in Paris, where he opened a business in the house where he met his death. He

COMMISSIONER SAYS VAGRANT
LAW MUST BE OBSERVED.

In a letter addressed to Mayors and County Judges, Mat. S. Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture and Labor, says the vagrant law must be enforced.

This law was passed by the recent legislature and requires every able-bodied man to work 36 hours a week. This law, Cohen says, is a war measure and must be complied with to the letter.

Copies of the letter have been received here by Mayor E. B. January and County Judge George Batterson. The city and county authorities have received instructions to enforce the new law, regardless of whom it hits, and to show no favor to anyone in anyway as far as the law is concerned.

PATRIOT DOLLARS.

All the dollars in the world can not buy victory. Victory is not purchasable—it is won. Dollars can work for victory only in so far as they are converted into labor and materials. A dollar hoarded is a slacker; a dollar wasted is a traitor; a dollar saved is a patriot, doubly so when loaned to the Government.

A hoarded dollar represents idle power; a wasted dollar represents wasted power; a dollar saved represents power saved. Loaned to your Government, it represents power, labor and materials in action, on the firing line, over the top. And more—it represents reserve power, energy stored, purchasing power conserved for its owner.
